

Beverage Testing Institute
2011 World Beer Championship Awards
Pale Ale and IPA

RJ.KING

WINGWALKER™ PALE ALE

85 Points

“Highly Recommended”
Silver Medal

“Pale amber color. Aromas and flavors of praline, lemon curd and toasted bread with a crisp entry to a dry-yet-fruity medium body and a soft grassy hop accented finish. Pleasant.”

TAP ROOM
NO. 21™
BREWING CO

Pale Ale

87 Points

“Highly Recommended”
Silver Medal

“Bright amber color. Aromas of peach cobbler and buttery praline with a supple, silky dry-yet-fruity medium and a lemon pepper, root vegetable and escarole accented finish.

A nice quaffer.”

CABLE CAR™

PALE ALE

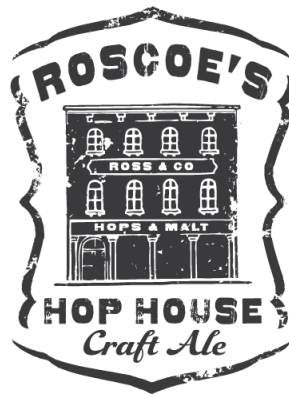

87 Points

“Highly Recommended”
Silver Medal

“Bright amber color. Aromas of peach jam on sourdough toast and lemon pudding with a supple, dryish medium body and a peppery, minerally, water chestnut and frisee-like hop finish. A nice easy-drinking pale ale.”

Take the Cable Car Home.

INDIA PALE ALE

86 Points

“Highly Recommended”
Silver Medal

“Hazy copper penny color. Aromas of lemon zest, nougat, and grass with a soft, dryish medium body and a tangy honeyed citrus and leafy green hop finish.”

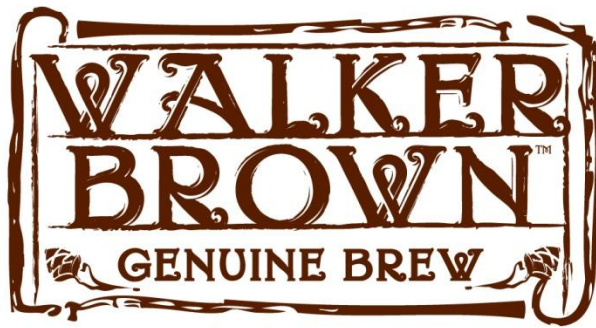

PALE ALE

86 Points

“Highly Recommended”
Silver Medal

“Bright amber color. Peach cobbler and orange marmalade aromas and flavors with a silky dryish medium body and a coconut custard, parsnip and arugula-like finish.”

PALE ALE

88 Points

“Highly Recommended”
Silver Medal

“Amber color. Aromas of buttery praline cookie and honeyed peach tart with a silky, dry-yet-fruity medium body and a frothy, lemon chiffon and grassy, leafy green hop finish. A nice quaffable brew.”

